Renovated farmhouse in stone, located in private settings with stunning views, within walking distance of Vinci

Beautiful, 300 sqm, detached farmhouse in stone, located privately in the hills of Vinci with stunning panoramic views, within walking distance to the town center.

The farmhouse dating back to 1400, has been completely renovated externally, in perfect Tuscan rustic style with stone walls, terracotta, wooden ceiling beams, etc., with modern energy saving and electric systems etc.

The building is divided into three separate living units, which can easily be united; a main part with entrance hall, large living room, kitchen, 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms plus a large panoramic terrace, and two smaller apartments of about 50 square meters each consisting of living room / kitchen, bathroom and bedroom.

The property is still undergoing renovation. The main part will be delivered completely renovated, while the smaller units will need to be completed internally.
