Charming villa with a stunning view and remarkable surroundings

This fabulous Tuscan farmhouse, divided into three levels, is located in wonderful green settings in the hills of Montecatini Terme. The property was once a convent, and still has a private chapel.

The house has several large common areas, where the family can get together. as well as large, spacious rooms, for moments of relaxation and privacy.

The surrounding garden and land consists of a beautiful olive grove and well maintained green gardens, with possibility to build a pool with a stunning panoramic view.
